FOREWORD

The purpose of this work is, first, to perpetuate the names and deeds of the members of a family which was in every way representative of many others that from humble beginnings laid the foundation for our national greatness; and second, to stir up in the hearts of the descendants a spirit of becoming pride in the worth and character of their honored ancestors. Without making any special claims to distinction, suffice it to say that like most of their neighbors they were God-fearing, sober, and industrious. Agriculture, at first, was their main avocation, and from the soil large numbers later turned to other pursuits in commerce and industry, as well as the professions. In all of these they contributed their full share to the development of the communities in which they lived, and in many cases achieved distinction in their chosen walks in life.

So much has been written about the causes leading up to the migration of German and other European peoples to Pennsylvania during the beginning of the eighteenth century, that the writer will touch only briefly upon this great movement, the influence of which had such a marked effect upon the lives of a large number of our people, and the establishment of our national existence.

Much unrest pervaded Europe during this eventful period, due to the persecutions of petty tyrants, religions and civil, whom the protracted wars had left without definite occupation or aim in life save that of preying upon the poorer classes and the peasants, whose lot at that time was most pitiable. Many of them had lost all in the defense of their country. Their chief desire was for peace, an opportunity to worship God in their own way, and to reestablish their shattered homes. Earlier settlers across the waters sent glowing reports to those left behind of the advantages of coming to these shores, and though many had to virtually sell themselves into a form of slavery in order to pay the cost of their passage, they required little urging to sever the ties which bound them to their native land, and embark on a journey fraught with many dangers, to which not a few succumbed. The previous history of these unhappy immigrants fitted them peculiarly for the hardships and trials incident to establishing homes in the new country, and today the evidences of their enterprise and thrift are seen on all sides in the communities of Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

The name Fenstermacher is clearly of German origin, and signifies "Windowmaker". The two more common forms in use are Fenstermacher and Fenstermaker, altho instances have been found where the abbreviated form Fenster is used, or, an entire departure from the original German spelling in the adoption of the English forms of Windowmaker or Glazier. In one of the earliest Berks County (Pennsylvania) tax lists, of which the Berks County Historical Society, in Reading, is now the custodian, the clerk who copies the record, wrote the name "Windowmaker", doubtless being moved either by a sense of humor, or by a desire to display his knowledge of the English significance of the name. Certain it is that no such pronounced change of the name occurred until a much later period.

In course of time the family became scattered through the length and breadth of the land, in many instances all trace of some individuals being lost. To pick up these scattered branches and weave them into their proper places in the completed tree, was a difficult and at times a well nigh impossible task. The author, endeavorred wherever possible to verify facts and to confirm his own conclusions, stating his reasons therefor when a doubt existed. Heresay facts, tombstone inscriptions, newspaper items, and even original pastoral, church, county, and family records, are none of them infallible; all doubtless contributed their share in the sum total of errors herein contained, and without further attempt to enumerate the many difficulties encountered in securing complete and accurate information for compiling a genealogy, the author, nevertheless, offers due apologies for any and all omissions and errors.

It should be pointed out that the work was begun about thirty years ago, being frequently interrupted for various reasons, and it is now submitted in complete form with the addition of data secured in recent years. This will explain why records in some instances are virtually up to date, while in others they appear to be incomplete.

In order to secure proper sequence for this added material, pages were lettered "a", "b", etc, and the symbols "-1", "-2", etc, used in connection with the numerical sub-divisions. The effect of these changes was to increase the actual number of pages from 827 to a total of 1084, exclusive of indices, and the total number of family sub-divisions from 1962 to approximately 2000. A conservative estimate of the total number of descendants of Mathias Fenstermacher recorded would be about 8000.

The general plan of the work is the "New England Register Plan", familiar to all librarians, and the seeker for information should have little difficulty in tracing his or her family record, with the aid of the two indices, one of given names of all persons bearing the family name, and the other, the surnames of persons intermarried with females in the family line of descent.

No attempt was made to adhere to the narrative form, thereby effecting a considerable saving of space and a more compact record. The use of the following abbreviations also aided in the accomplishment of this purpose:

b	- born,
bap.	- baptized,
d	- died,
dau.	- daughter,
m	- married.

The writer expresses the hope that with this as a beginning, some one may become sufficiently interested in the family genealogy, to improve and enlarge upon what has already been done, and perhaps put it in suitable shape for general distribution to members of the family, libraries, etc.

A GENEALOGICAL HISTORY of the FENSTERMACHER FAMILY

GENEALOGY.

(1) Matthias Fenstermacher.- The earliest record of this pioneer ancestor appears in the ship register of the sailing vessel "Glasgow",* Walter Sterling, Master, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes, which contains the names of 349 passengers, mostly Palatines, as the dwellers in the Rhine valleys were designated, who, upon their arrival at Philadelphia, 9 Sept. 1738, subscribed to the Oath of Allegiance required by the English authorities. Included in the list we find the names of Matthias Fenstermacher, aged 60, Jacob Fenstermacher, aged 29, and Wilhelm Fenstermacher, aged 25

Assuming the age of Matthias as given in the ship register to be correct, he was born about the year 1678, and altho his relationship to the other two is not definitely stated, we may conclude that he was the father. It is also presumed that he was the father of Philip Fenstermacher, who preceded the other three to America the previous year (1737). The close association of Matthias, Jacob, and Philip, as well as that of the children of the two latter in the early settlement of Longswamp township ()

(*) A Collection of Thirty Thousand Names" etc., by I. Daniel Rupp.

() Longswamp township was settled about 1734, and erected as a township of Berks County in 1761. It was named from the peculiar condition of the soil and subsequent formation of Berks County, Pennsylvania, in 1742, further strengthens the belief in their supposed relationship.

Until quite recently the writer had no definite information as to the origin of these early pioneers. The first clue was furnished by Rev. John Baer Stoudt, of Allentown, Pa., who stated that he had access to a list of 400 families who came to America from Zweibruecken, in Rhenish Bavaria. The list is from the Archives of Speyer, from which the following is an extract:

"1738 - Jacob Fenstermacher, Matthias Fenstermacher, Hans Adam Miller; Peter, Thomas, and Elizabeth Faustzin, from the ampt Hohefelden, Zweibruecken - left for Pennsylvania".

Hans Adam Miller was a fellow passenger of Matthias and Jacob Fenstermacher on the ship "Glasgow", but the name Faustzin does not occur in any of the passenger lists for the year 1738

The name of Wilhelm Fenstermacher does not occur in any of the early records, from which it would appear that he either settled elsewhere, or that he died soon after his arrival.

of a large portion of its area.

Berks County was organized 11 March 1752, from parts of Philadelphia, Lancaster and Bucks Counties.

Nothing is known as to the movements of Matthias Fensterma cher or his sons between the time of their arrival at Philadelphia (1738), and the date of the founding of the Longswamp Church (1748). An early writer in "Skizzen aus dem Lecha-Thale", by Benjamin F. Trexler (Allentown, 1880-1886), says: "The elder Johannes Fenstermacher once narrated to me that his ancestors came to Longswamp from Oley (*). The journey through the hills by wagon was dreadful, there being no roads then as now. On the south side of the mountain overlooking the church the household goods were unloaded under a tree, and in God's free air a home was begun. Forked branches of trees stuck into the ground, with a cross piece from which the cooking kettle was suspended, served as their first hearth, and the spanned wagon top was their sleeping chamber". The narrator was inaccurate in his statement in regard to the church, because its erection was not begun until 1748, when Jacob and Philip Fensterma cher assisted in the work.

Little Lehigh Church, now known as Longswamp, located at Hertztown, Longswamp township, was founded in 1748 by members of the Reformed faith. In 1762 Jacob Weimer, the schoolmaster, wrote a brief history of the congregation, in which he mentions Jacob and Philip Fensterma cher in a list of those who assisted in the work of building the first church.

(*) Oley, in the Manatawny section

The "Kirchen Buch", or Church Register, was begun in 1762 by Weimer. He mentions the following as being the pastors to that date: Frederick Casimer Miller (1748); Philip Jacob Michael (1754); Rudolph Miderweiler (1754-62). These were followed by Philip Jacob Michael (1763-74); Johann Heinrich Helffrich (1775-80); Philip Jacob Michael (1780-84); Heinrich Hertzel (1785-95); and Johann Heinrich Helffrich (1796-1810).

The name of Matthias Fenstermacher does not appear in the earliest tax lists of Berks County for the years 1753-5. He was, however, assessed in Longswamp township, in 1758, 1759, 1760 (in the latter year he was designated as "poor man"); and lastly in 1761. At this time his age would have been about 83, and it is quite probable that he died in that or the following year. He did not appear to have had a will, and his place of burial is unknown. No mention is anywhere made of his wife, and he was probably a widower when he left his native land.

of Berks County, was first settled in 1712, and erected into a township in 1740.

(2) JACOB FENSTERMACHER (Matthias); As previously stated it is assumed that he was a son of Matthias, whom he accompanied to America in 1738. In the ship register of the "Glasgow" his age was given as 29, and if this is correct he was born about 1709. The Register of the Reformed congregation in Longswamp, Berks County, mentions him and his brother, Philip, in a list of names of those who in 1748 assisted in the building of the first church.

The next mention of Jacob occurs 24 June 1751, when he, with Frederick Helwig and Conrad Fisher, affixed their signatures to the will of Christopher Doll, an early settler in Longswamp township.

Jacob Fenstermacher's name, with that of his brother Philip, appears in the first Berks County tax list of 1753, when he was assessed for a tax of 14s in Longswamp tsp. He was taxed for varying amounts during the years following.

The Proprietary Returns for the year 1767, according to the Pennsylvania Archives, credit him with being the owner of 100 acres of land, two horses and two head of cattle, for which he paid a tax of 4s. In the Registry of Property for 1779 he was not taxed for land, but did pay 9s for one cow.

The name Jacob, Sr., appears in the First Federal Census of 1790, as the head of a family in Longswamp Tp. The family consisted of one male over 16 years of age (himself), and one female (probably wife). He was then 81 years of age and apparently all of his children had left the parental roof and provided homes for themselves.

Jacob Fenstermacher was perhaps not blessed with as much of this world's goods as his brother Philip. The latter owned considerable land in the township, paid higher taxes, and made a will in which he made distribution of his estate to his eight sons and one daughter, who are specifically named. Jacob did not have a will, so far as the records disclose, and appears to have disposed of his property before his death. The exact date is not known, and no mention of his death, or that of his wife, is made in the records of Rev. Johann Heinrich Helffrich between the years 1790 and 1810.

Between the years 1732 and 1740 he married ( ) Koehler, a widow. By a former marriage she had a son Johann George Koehler, b 6 March 1732, d 24 May 1799. The latter m 16 March 1756, Maria Elisabeth Koehler, eldest daughter of Jacob and Maria Elisabeth Koehler, b 17 May 1733, d 25 July 1805. Johann George Koehler and his wife are buried at Egypt, Lehigh County, Pa. His widow m. secondly George Knull, of Germantown, Pa. In his will dated 3 July 1797, probated at Easton, Pa., 3 June 1799, George (Johann George) Koehler, blacksmith provided for his wife Mary Elisabeth, and mentioned George Fenstermacher, son of his half-brother William Fenstermacher. The reference in this will is the only information we have at this time as to the wife of Jacob Fenstermacher. It is of interest to observe that George Koehler and wife Elisabeth (Maria Elisabeth), were sponsors at the baptism of Johann George, son of William and Margretha Elisabeth Fenstermacher, 31 Jan. 1773.

There is no definite information as to Jacob's offspring, either as to names or number. The ages and associations of those mentioned leave little room for doubt that they were brothers and sisters. They were certainly not the children of Philip, whose names and dates of birth (with the exception of Peter and John) are definitely known. There is some question regarding Anna Maria Fenstermacher Bieber (No. 5) and Wilhelm (No. 4). The inscription on the tombstone of the former, at Schoenersville, Pa., gives 16 May 1740 as the date of birth, while that of the latter at Heidelberg Church, Lehigh County, Pa. gives 11 Oct. 1740 as the date of birth, an interval of only five months between the two. However, errors in tombstone inscriptions occur quite frequently, and no doubt a mistake was made in one case or the other.

It was a common custom in those early days when parents had their children baptized to have brothers and/or sisters act as sponsors. This practice makes the baptismal records useful sources of information to show the relationship that probably existed between various members of a family. The baptisms noted below (a to j) help to confirm the suppositions as to the names of the children of Jacob Fenstermacher:

a. Anna Barbara Fenstermacher(No. 11) (single) was one of the sponsors 8 May 1777 for John Jacob, son of Jacob (No.8) and Margretha Fenstermacher(Longswamp Reformed Record).

b. Johannes Fenstermacher (No.9) was one of the sponsors 19 Jan. 1791 for Johannes, son of Dewald (No.10) and Catharina Fenstermacher (Egypt Record).

c. Jacob Fenstermacher (No.8) and his wife Anna Margaretha, sponsors in 1778 for Peter, son of Joseph (No.7) and Margaretha Fenstermacher (Long swamp Reformed Record).

d. Daniel Fenstermacher (No. 15?) and his wife Catharina, sponsors in 1782 for Catharina, daughter of Joseph (No. 7) and Margaretha Fenstermacher (Longswamp Reformed Record).

e. Jacob Fenstermacher (No.8) and his wife Margaretha, sponsors in 1789 for Jacob, son of Joseph (No.7) and Margaretha Fenstermacher.

f. Maria (Anna Maria) Fenstermacher (No.5) was one of the sponsors 10 Sept. 1765 for Anna Catharina, daughter of Wilhelm (No.4) Fenstermacher (Longswamp Reformed Record).

g. George Rauh and wife Anna Barbara Fenstermacher (No.11) sponsors 25 Sept. 1791 for Regina, daughter of Christian (No.6) and Maria Barbara Fenstermacher (Egypt Lutheran Record).

h. Michael Bieber and wife (? Anna Maria Fenstermacher No.5), sponsors 6 Oct. 1793 for Michael, son of Christian (No.6) and Maria Barbara Fenstermacher (Schoenersville Reformed Record).

i. Johannes Fenstermacher and wife Christina sponsors 9 July 1775 for Johannes, son of Michael and Maria Barbara (?Anna Maria Fenstermacher No.5) Bieber, b 26 June 1775 (Kreidersville Lutheran Record).

j. Johannes Fenstermacher (No.9) and wife Anna Maria, sponsors 22 March 1801 for Sarah, daughter of Jacob Dreisbach and wife Anna Margaret Bieber (? dau. of Michael and Anna Maria Fenstermacher (No.5) Bieber). (Kreidersville Reformed Record).

5. PHILIP FENSTERMACHER (Matthias) was the first of the family to leave his native land for America. He was born in Europe 27 Feb. 1713, and, according to the records of Rev. Johann Heinrich Helffrich, was buried 18 June 1790, at Longswamp, Berks County, Pa., aged 77 years, 3 months, 2 weeks and 5 days. If this information is correct, he was 24 years of age when he arrived at Philadelphia with 317 other Palatines aboard the ship "Samuel", Hugh Percy, Master, from Rotterdam. Upon their arrival 30 August 1737, the passengers all took the required Oath of Allegiance*. In the ship's register Philip's age is given as 20 years. It will be seen that there is a discrepancy of four years in his age, between the Helffrich record and the ship's register.

It required a high degree of courage for one so young to brave the dangers of an ocean voyage in the frail sailing vessels of that day, even though accompanied by friends and former neighbors, as was no doubt the case. Future events clearly showed that Philip Fenstermacher was a man of considerably higher type than most of his neighbors. His youthful enthusiasm in undertaking alone the journey to America, the lifelong association of himself and his family in the work of the church, and his perseverance in acquiring a considerable share of this world's goods, all combine to reveal his character and standing in the community in which he lived.

* "A Collection of 30,000 Names," etc., by I. Daniel Rupp.

The presumption, as in the case of Jacob Fenstermacher, is, that Philip was a son of Matthias. Philip and Jacob are both mentioned in the Church record of the Reformed charge in Longswamp Tp. in the list of persons who in 1748 assisted in the building of the first church. Both were assessed for taxes in that township as early as 1753, and there is little room for doubt as to the relationship that existed between them. Nothing has been found to indicate what may have been Philip's movements between the date of his arrival at Philadelphia (30 Aug. 1737), and the date of building the first church at Longswamp (1748), other than the tradition already referred to that the family settled in Oley, Berks County, before making their home in Longswamp.

In a list of "Persons Naturalized in Pennsylvania", published in Pennsylvania Archives(Second Series, Vol. 11), we find that Philip Fenstermacher, of Longswamp, Berks County, was naturalized 10 April 1755 before Chief Justice William Allen, after having taken the sacrament 23 March 1755. We are told by Edward F. DeLancey, in his sketch of the life of Chief Justice Allen (The Pennsylvania Magazine, Vol. 1, p. 204 - 1877) that "William Allen was appointed Chief Justice of Pennsylvania in 1751, and held the office until 1774". It is further stated therein that 'the Supreme Court of the Province was held in the west room of Independence Hall, directly opposite that in which Independence was voted and the Continental Congress sat."

Philip Fenstermacher's name appears in the earliest Berks County tax list of 1753, when he was assessed 24s tax in Longswamp Tp. For subsequent years he paid varying amounts. In the year 1767 he paid a Proprietary tax of 10s for 150 acres of land, 3 horses, 3 cattle, and 2 sheep. In 1779 his property tax was £1. 17. 4. for 250 acres of land, 3 horses, and 2 cattle. The Proprietary Return for 1780 credits him with 249 acres of land, 5 Horses, and 4 cattle, for which he was assessed a tax of £ 52.15.0.

He was also the owner of land in Lynn Tp., Northampton (now Lehigh) County, the records showing that 5 Feb. 1789, Philip Fenstermacher, Sr., and Elisabeth, his wife, of Longswamp, deeded land in the former township to his son Michael, who was a resident there.

In the Rockland Tp. (Berks County) Church Register is recorded the baptism of Johann Michael, son of Philip Fenstermacher and his wife Elisabeth, n.n. Kaercher (Kercher), born 2 June 1749, and baptized 15 Nov. 1749. The sponsors were Michael Kaercher and Gertrude Schiffert, presumably both single. It is quite interesting to note that this is the only baptismal record of any of the children of Philip or of Jacob Fenstermacher that has been found, and what makes it particularly so is the fact that it gives the maiden name of Philip's wife Elisabeth.

In conflict with the foregoing is a statement made to the writer by the Rev. John Baer Stoudt, that in the family register of Peter Butz and Anna Barbara, his wife, n.n. Carl, of Longswamp, is recorded the baptism of their daughter Elisabeth 13 April 1753, the sponsors being Philip Tenstermacher and Magdalena Welwig, his wife.

Both the Kercher and Welwig families were early settlers in the township, but the weight of the evidence that Elizabeth Kercher was his wife seems to preclude the Ruth record. The name Elizabeth Kercher is plainly stated in the Rockland Township church record as being the wife of Philip. The latter, in his will dated 1 July 1789, provided for his wife Elizabeth and also named her as one of his executors. She was a party to the deed of 5 Feb. 1789 to the son, Johann Michael. On the other hand, the name Magdalena is nowhere else found as the wife of Philip.

KERCHER FAMILY.

The Kercher family (variously spelled Kercher, Kaercher, Karcher, Karger, Kager, Kergher, etc.) were early settlers in Berks County. Michael was mentioned above as one of the sponsors for Johann Michael Tenstermacher, baptized 15 Nov. 1749. The same year Martin Kercher and Elisabeth, his wife, were sponsors for a child of Heinrich Litweiler and Eva, his wife. Martin was assessed in the first tax list for Berks County, in Longswamp Tp., in 1753. He served in the Third Battalion of Berks County Militia, commanded by Col. Michael Limbach, as major, in 1777 and 1780, (Pennsylvania Archives, Vol.V. Fifth Ser., pp 109 and 208). In 1773 he donated a piece of land at Hamburg, Pa., to be used by the Lutheran and Reformed people of the community as a place of worship. The first structure was of logs and was dedicated in 1790. (Historical and Biographical Annals of Berks County, Pa. - Montgomery - 1909).

Frederick Kercher and wife Anna Barbara, according to the Longswamp Church record, had children as follows: Friedrich Wilhelm, b 12 March 1776, Philip Peter, b 9 Feb. 1778, and Jacob, b 28 Nov. 1787. He served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. George Miller's Company of Berks County Militia, on duty at South Amboy, 5 Sept. 1776 (Ibid. p 152); and again in Capt. Jacob Baldy's Company of the Sixth Battalion, in the service of the United States from 10th Aug. to 9th Sept; 1780 (Ibid. p 235).

Johann George (George) Kercher and his wife Elisabeth had children baptized as follows: Johann George, b 15 Dec.1802, and Lydia, b 22 Dec. 1804. George also served in the War for Independence in Capt. Jacob Baldy's Company from 10th Aug. to 9th Sept. 1780 (Ibid. p 235).

Christian and John were enrolled in Capt. Krauss' First Company of the Third Battalion of Berks County Militia, from Longswamp and Maxatawny Tps., in 1783, (Ibid p 200).

Jacob's name appears in a payroll of Lieut. Nicholas Seybert's detachment of Berks County Militia, for Continental pay and bounty from 17 Oct. 1781 until 18 Dec. 1781, including two days extra pay. (Ibid p 284). Also on payroll of Lieut. Jacob Rehrer's detachment of the Second Battalion on duty guarding Convention prisoners of war near Reading, settled and entered 28 Feb. 1791. (Ibid p 187).

The Federal Census of 1790 names the following as heads of families in Berks County: In Longswamp Tp., John Kercher; in Rockland Tp., George Kercher., in Windsor Tp., Daniel and Christian Kercher.

Another Frederick was a soldier of the Revolution from Lancaster County. In 1790 he was a resident of Warwick Tp., that county.

HELWIG FAMILY.

The Helwigs were also an early family of Longswamp Tp., Berks County, Frederick and Adam being assessed in the first tax list of 1754. The former was probably the ancestor, and Adam (then single), was probably his son.

Adam Helwig was a soldier of the Revolution, being listed 17 May 1777 as one of two Court Martial Men in the First Company of the Second Battalion of Berks County Militia, commanded by Lieut. Col. Mark Bird. (Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. V, p 176). Adam and Catharina, his wife, it appears from the Longswamp Church record, had children baptized as follows: Johannes, b 8 Feb. 1776; Johann Adam, b 1 Jan. 1778; Elisabeth, b 21 Nov. 1779; and a daughter (not named) b 16 June 1781. The first Federal Census of 1790 names Johann Adam (Adam) as the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16 years of age, 5 males under 16, and 7 females, in Longswamp Tp.

Adam, Jr. and Maria Magdalena, his wife, had children baptized: Benjamin, b 10 Jan. 1804; and Johannes, b 8 Jan. 1806.

Frederick (Presumably also a son of Adam, Sr.), m. 30 April 1799 Anna Maria Kieffer, and had children baptized: Hanna, b 7 May 1801; Peter, b 23 Oct. 1802; Maria, b 10 March 1804; and Sarah, b 3

Oct. 1805.

Andrew Helwig was also a resident of Berks County, and in the Federal Census of 1790 was the head of a family consisting of 2 males over 16, 3 males under 16, and 4 females, in Windsor Tp.

The Rev. Johann Heinrich Helffrich, in addition to the marriage of Frederick, mentioned above, records the following: Catharine, m Peter Sterner 4 April 1797, at Longswamp; Elisabeth, m Heinrich Diener, 7 Dec. 1802, at his home; Susanna, m Johannes Gäntzel, 7 Aug. 1803, at his home; Ester, m Abraham Long, 1 Oct. 1805, at his home; and Jacob, m Catharine ----- 2 June 1807, at his home.

Additional data - Kercher Family.

Additional data relating to the Kercher family have been found in the records of DeLong's Church, Bowers, Berks County, Pa., as follows:

Children of Christian and Margretha: Johannes, b 4 Dec., bap. 25 Dec. 1776. Sp: Johannes Kercher and Maria Lang, both single: (2) Christian b 16 Dec. 1779, bap. 26 March 1780, Sp: Christian Berger and w. Gertrude; (3) Margretha, b 1 July, bap. 25 Aug. 1782, Sp: Johannes Fritsch and w. Maria; Daniel, b 7 July, bap. 25 Oct. 1785, Sp: Daniel Kercher and Sarah Schwartz, both single.

Child of Jacob and Anna Maria Kercher: Johann Jacob, b 22 March, bap. 4 Sept. 1774; Sp: Jacob Haack and w. Anna Margretha.

Children of Johannes and Maria Kercher, all baptized 13 Aug. 1786: Jacob, George, and Magdalena. The sponsors for the last named were Jacob Meyer and w. Magdalena.

Philip Fenstermacher's will was dated 1 July 1789, and was probated 9 July 1790, at Reading, Pa.

The record of Rev. Johann Helffrich mentions the burial of "die Fenstermacherin", 1 Oct. 1791, at Longswamp, aged 65 years and 11 months. We assume this to have been the widow of Philip, whom she survived a little more than a year.

The inscriptions on the slate tombstones marking the resting places of Philip Fenstermacher and his wife are rapidly crumbling to dust, and unless steps are promptly taken to mark the spot, it will soon be impossible to locate the graves. When the writer visited the Longswamp cemetery about 25 years ago, the ravages of time had not yet effaced the inscriptions.

4. William Fenstermacher (Jacob-Mathias) b 11 Oct. 1740, probably in Berks County, Pa., d 27 Nov. 1801 in Heidelberg Tp., Northampton (Now Lehigh) County, * Pa., and bd. at the old Heidelberg Church.

The only definite information we have concerning his parentage is contained in the will of Johann George Koehler, dated 3 July 1797, wherein the latter referred to William Fenstermacher as his half-brother. As Johann George Koehler's birth occurred 6 March 1732, his mother evidently married secondly a Fenstermacher, who we assume was Jacob.

William Fenstermacher's name appears in a list of those confirmed in Heidelberg Tsp. on the Sunday following Easter 1757, by Rev. John Egidius Hecker (Tohicken, Bucks County, Reformed Record). His name is also included in a list of those who built the second Heidelberg Church in 1756. At that time he was evidently only a temporary resident of that township, and his name is not included in the tax list for 1762. His name does, however, appear in the Berks County tax lists, as a single man, in Longswamp Tp., for the years 1759, 1760, and 1761. About that time he probably married, and his name continued in the regular list of taxables until 1770.

In the year 1767 he paid a Proprietary tax of 3s in Longswamp Tp., as the owner of 30 acres of land and two horses.(Penna.Archives, Old.Ser.)

The first child of William Fenstermacher was baptized in Longswamp, 10 Sept. 1863.

About the year 1770 he settled permanently in Heidelberg Tp., and his name is first mentioned in the records of the Heidelberg Church * 23 Dec. in that year, when he and his wife Margretha Elisabeth acted as sponsors for a son of Philip Wertz. The same records gave the baptisms of three of his own children, i.e., Johann Philip in 1771; Johann George in 1773; and Elisabeth in 1787. The baptism of his son William was found in the Unionville Church records.

*The writer was fortunate in having the opportunity to examine the early records of the Heidelberg Church before their destruction by fire about 20 years ago.

From the Pennsylvania Archives (Old Series) we learn that William Fenstermacher, farmer, in 1772 paid a Proprietary tax of 18s 8d in Heidelberg Tp. Soon thereafter he became the owner of 170 acres of land in the township, besides owning two horses and three head of cattle, on all of which he paid Federal taxes as follows: 1785, £ 1.11.2; 1786, £ 1. 8.0; 1788, £ 1.5.5. In the year 1786 he was listed as the owner of a distillery.

In the first Federal Census of 1790, his name appears as the head of a family, consisting of three males over 16, two males under 16, and two females, in Heidelberg Tp.

William Fenstermacher served the Colonies in the War of the Revolution, as a private in Capt. Conrad Roeder's Fifth Company of the Third Battalion of Northampton County Militia, in 1778(Penna. Archives, Fifth Ser., Vol. VIII, p. 234), and again, in the Sixth Battalion in 1780(Ibid p 449).

30 Dec. 1800, William and Elisabeth, his wife, deeded a piece of land to their son William, Jr., also of Heidelberg Tp.

His will, written in German, was probated at Easton, Pa., 28 Dec.1801, the document being witnessed by George Horn and Martin Andrews. The executors were his sons George and William, and he also mentioned children Johannes and Elisabeth. Final settlement of his estate was made 14 April 1802, the balance for distribution being £ 516. 1. 10.

William Fenstermacher married about 1762, Margretha Elisabeth (Maiden name not known), about whom information is very meager. She was probably a member of one of the early Longswamp families, but the date of her death and place of burial are not known. 8 June 1802, she married secondly Johann George Bloss, eldest son of Conrad and Anna Magdalena Bloss, b 15 Oct. 1744, d 19 April 1815, and bd. at the old Heidelberg Church.

Conrad Bloss, by trade a weaver, was an early settler in Washington Tp., then a part of Heidelberg. The records show that he participated in the Battle of Long Island, 27 Aug. 1776, and he was probably killed in that disastrous engagement, not being heard from again. His widow Anna Magdalena died in 1803, aged about 77 years. They had children as follows: John George, Susanna, Eva Elisabeth (wife of Peter Seidel), Daniel, Peter, Henry, Sonia(?), and Conrad.

John George Bloss, who married secondly the widow of William Fenstermacher, was the eldest son of Conrad, and was variously occupied as farmer, miller, and distiller. He and his wife (first), Anna Barbara ---------, had issue as follows: Christian, b 27 July 1768, d 2 Feb.

1836; Anna Maria Barbara b 6 Oct. 1769; Elisabeth, b 12 May 1772, d 16 Oct. 1839, m John Peter; Maria Susanna, b 12 Oct. 1773; Julianna, b 3 Oct. 1775, d 23 Oct. 1829, m Casper Peter; Anna Margaret, b 14 May 1777; Anna Maria, b 17 Apr. 1779, d 3 Jan. 1836, m Michael Wehr; Anna Magdalena, b 23 May 1781; John George, Jr., b 20 March 1783, d 4 Oct. 1862, m Eva Hetzger; Henry, b 9 March 1789, d 13 March 1850, m Salome Handwerk.

John George Bloss made his will 16 May 1815, which, after his death was probated at Allentown, Pa., and named as executors his sons Christian and John George, Jr. A more detailed sketch of the Bloss Family is contained in "A History of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania," by Charles R. Roberts, et al., Allentown, Pa., 1914.

William Fenstermacher, and Margretha Elisabeth, his wife, had issue:

a. Anna Catharina, bap. 10 Sept. 1763. Sponsors, Philip Fenstermacher, Johann George Klein, Maria Fenstermacher and Catharina Granin.

21. b. Johann Philip, b 6 Oct. 1771, bap.10 Nov. 1771. Sponsors: Philip Ebert and wife Anna Margretha.

22. c. Johann George, b 18 Jan.1773, bap. 31 Jan.1773. Sponsors, George Koehler and wife Elisabeth.

23. d. William, b 22 March 1775, bap. 5 April 1775. Sponsors, Wilhelm Peter and Elisabeth Barbara Meyer.

24. e. Elisabeth, b 25 Oct. 1787, bap. 26 Nov. 1787. Sponsors, Johannes Ehrhard and wife Margaretha.

25. f. John.

5. Anna Maria Fenstermacher (Jacob-Mathias), b 16 May 1740, probably in Berks County, Pa., d 10 May 1801, and bd. at Schoenersville, Pa. We have no positive information concerning her parentage, other than her associations with various members of the family, who, for reasons heretofore stated, we assumed to be children of Jacob (No. 2). There is a difference of only five months between the date of birth as recorded on her tombstone, and that on the tombstone of William Fenstermacher, but discrepancies of this kind are frequently met with, and in this instance all the facts tend to show that there was very little difference in their ages.

The first mention of her name is in the Longswamp Reformed Church record 10 Sept. 1763, when Maria (Anna Maria), presumably single, was one of the sponsors for Anna Catharina, daughter of William Fenstermacher (? No. 4).

Anna Maria Fenstermacher m. Michael Bieber, b 11 Feb. 1740, d 26 Oct. 1832, and bd. at Schoenersville. His name first occurs in the records 3 July 1759, as a witness to the will of Jacob Burger, of Longswamp Tp., Berks County. Rev. William A. Helffrich mentions his name as appearing on the records of the Weissenberg Church as one of the first settlers of Weissenberg Tp., Lehigh County. The congregation was first organized in 1747 (History of the Counties of Lehigh and Carbon - By Alfred Mathews and Austin N. Hungerford, - Phila., 1884).

In the Zion's Stone Church Lutheran records, at Kreidersville, Pa., are found the baptisms of three children of Michael and Maria Barbara Bieber, as follows:

Heinrich, b 8 May, bap. 24th May 1773; sponsors, Heinrich Schafer and w. Elisabeth.

Johannes, b 26 June, bap. 9th July 1775; sponsors, Johannes Fenstermacher and w. Christina.

Johann Friederich, b 28 Feb., bap. 18 Apr. 1783; sponsors, Friederich Hauer and w. Barbara.

His name also appears in lists of communicants for the years 1773, 1774, 1775, 1776 and 1777, but not accompanied by the name of his wife. In the same records we find that children of Michael Bieber were confirmed as follows:

Catharina,	1776.
Peter, age 15,	1780.
Valentine, age 15-1/2	Apr. 1793.
Regina, age 13-1/2	" "
Johann, age 16	1791.

The only mention of the name Maria Barbara as the wife of Michael, is in connection with the three above baptisms 1773, 1775 and 1783. Anna Maria is first named as his wife 9 Oct. 1785, in connection with the baptism of a daughter of Joseph and Anna Elisabeth Larosch (Schoenersville Lutheran record).

It may be deduced from the above facts that Michael Bieber married prior to 1761, Maria Barbara ----------, and secondly, about 1765, Anna Maria Fenstermacher. There is, of course, the possibility that the latter also had been previously married.

Following the death of Anna Maria Fenstermacher Bieber, Michael married Magdalena Mickley Deschler, b 31 Aug. 1746, d 3 Feb. 1833. She was the widow of Peter Deschler, son of Adam, b 18 Mar. 1743, d 28 Sept. 1800, and bd. at Schoenersville.

Peter Deschler was a farmer in Whitehall Tp., Lehigh County, and later in life moved to Allen Tp., Northampton County, where he died. He married 29 Oct. 1765 Magdalena Mickley, daughter of John Jacob and Elisabeth Barbara (Burkhalter)Mickley, and had issue: (1) John Peter, b 3 Apr. 1767, d 6 Oct. 1854, m 16 Oct. 1790, Maria Magdalena Schreiber, b 29 Jan. 1767, d 11 Jan. 1831; (2) Catharine, b 14 March 1769, d young; (3) David, b 8 April 1773, d m Regina Bieber, b 9 Dec. 1779 (dau. of Michael) and had issue eight ch.; (4) Catharine, b 19 April 1775; (5) Susanna, b 13 Jan. 1778, d 23 July 1834, m John Yundt; (6) Jacob, b 30 March 1781, d m Elisabeth Hagenbuch and lived in Northumberland County; (7) Magdalena, b 5 Oct. 1784; (8) Sara, b 25 Aug. 1788, m Jacob Weaver.

Michael Bieber served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Capt. Paul Krauss' Eighth Company of the Third Battalion of Northampton County Militia, commanded by Lt. Col. Nicholas Kern, in 1780, 1781 and 1782 (Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. 8, pp. 240, 249, 274 and 290, the name being variously spelled "Bever" and "Baver". The former spelling is also used in the first Federal Census of 1790, when Michael Bever's name appears as the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, three males under 16, and three females, in Allen tsp., Northampton County. The names of Peter and John are also given in the census of 1790 as heads of families in the same township.

6. Christian Fenstermacher (Jacob-Mathias), b 8 June 1748, probably in Berks County, Pa., d 25 Jan. 1829, and bd. at Christ Church, Schoenersville, Pa.

In the Berks County tax lists, his name occurs first as a single man, in Longswamp Tp., for the year 1772. He paid a Federal tax of £ 5. 0. 5. in that township for 1779, being the owner of 100 acres of land, a horse, and a cow (Penna. Archives, Old Series). The following year he was assessed £ 15. 15.). as the owner of 150 acres of land, two horses and one cow (Ibid). His assessment for 1781 was for the same amount of property, the tax being only £ 3. 2. 9. Some time after 1781 he disposed of a part of his land, the Return of Assessment for 1784 showing only 50 acres of land, two horses, and two head of cattle (Ibid). On the assessment for 1785 he paid a tax of £ 5. 0. 0., no mention being made of what property this amount covered. About this same time he appears to have moved to Allen Tp.*, Northampton County, where he was assessed for Federal tax in the years 1785, 1786 and 1788, on 140 acres of land and two horses, paying £ 1. 2. 6., £ 1. 3. 11., and £ 1. 0. 0., respectively for each of those years (Ibid).

Two children (Anna Magdalena and Johannes), were baptized in Longswamp. The baptism of Philip appears in the records of the Egypt Reformed Church; that of Maria Magdalena in the records of Zion's Stone Church, near Kreidersville, Pa., that of Regina in the records of the Egypt Lutheran Church; and those of Michael, Elisabeth, Maria and Henry, in the records of the Schoenersville Reformed Church, of which the family were members.

In the first Federal Census of 1790 (p. 169) the name of Christian is given as the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16, three males under 16, and two females, residing in Allen Tp., Northampton County. His name does not appear in the Fifth or Sixth Series of the Pennsylvania Archives, as a soldier of the Revolutionary War, nor is it found in a list of "Taxables in Northampton County, 1780".(History of Northampton County, Peter Fritts, - Philadelphia and Reading, - ~~Philadelphia and Reading~~, - 1877.)

Christian Fenstermacher's will was dated 15 May 1826, and probated at Easton, Pa., 11 March 1829. He mentions his wife Barbara, and all of his children with the exception of the daughters Anna Magdalena, Maria Magdalena, and Maria, who were probably not living. Regina had also died before her father, as provision was made in his will for her children, naming Lea, John, Charles and Hannah Ross. His son Henry was executor of the will.

Christian Fenstermacher md., Maria Barbara Hilbert, b 4 Dec. 1757, d 20 Dec. 1826, and bd. at Christ Church, Schoenersville, Pa. She was a native of Rockland Tp., Berks Co., Pa., a daughter of John Hilbert, and was mentioned in the latter's will dated 6 Oct. 1805, probated at Reading, Pa., 19 March 1806.

(7) Joseph Fenstermacher, (Jacob-Mathias), b about 1750 in Berks Co., Pa., d 1 June 1806 in Longswamp tp., Berks Co., and probably buried at the Old Church in that place. The date of his death was obtained from Rev. John Henry Helffrich's record of the burial of Joseph's wife, Margaretha.

In the Berks County tax lists for the years 1771 and 1772, he was assessed as a single man, in Longswamp Tp. In the Register of Property for 1779, he was assessed in the same tp., for 100 acres of land, two horses and two head of cattle, and paid a Federal tax of £5. 9. 6.; in 1780 he was assessed for 150 acres of land, three horses and three head of cattle, and paid a tax of £16. 5. 0.; in 1781 he paid £3. 7. 9.; in 1784 there is a notation in the record: "Number of persons, seven", presumably referring to the size of his family; in 1785 his tax amounted to £1. 14. 6., no mention being made of what property this included. (Penna. Archives-Old Series).

In the first Federal Census for 1790 (p.36), his name appears "Jost Fenstermaker", as head of a family consisting of two males over 16, one male under 16, and five females, in Longswamp Tp.

He was listed a private in Capt. Charles Krause's First Company of the Third Battalion of Berks County Militia recruited from Longswamp and Maxatawny tps., 1783. (Penna. Archives, Fifth Series, Vo. 5, p. 201).

Joseph Fenstermacher and his family were members of the Longswamp Reformed Church, and the Baptisms of five of his children are recorded in the register of that Church, viz: Johannes (first), Peter, Catharine, Elisabeth, and Jacob. In the Baptisms of Johannes, Peter, and Jacob, the mother's name is given as Margretha, in the case of Catharine only the Father's name is given; and in the case of Elisabeth the Mother's name is recorded as Maria Margretha.

In his will, Joseph Fenstermacher refers to his wife as Anna Margret, and altho she was generally known as Margret, the former was most likely her full baptismal name.

The Rev. John Henry Helffrich records the death of Margretha, daughter of Wilhelm Heinrich Hack (Hauch or Hoch) and wife Margaretha, b 8 Feb. 1750, d 11 March 1841, aged 90 y., 1m. and 3 d, and bd. at the Longswamp Church. The record mentions her marriage 7 Apr. 1773 to Joseph Fenstermacher, and that she lived in this matrimony 33 y., 1 m. and 25 d, having issue seven sons and five daughters, of whom three (? six) preceded her in death.

A son John, born in 1776, appears to have died in infancy, and another son, born in 1787, was also baptised John.

Five sons preceded their father in death, all without issue viz: John (first). Peter, Jacob, and two whose names are not known. Likewise a daughter, whose name is not known.

No tombstones have been found at the Longswamp Church marking the resting places of Joseph Fenstermacher and his wife Anna Margaret.

The former's will was dated 26 Dec. 1805 and probated at Reading, Pa. 4 Aug. 1806 (two months after his death). The instrument was witnessed by Samuel Butz and John Walp, and the wife was named as executrix. The will provided for her and the children, naming John (who was to have "first right to the land at its valuation"); Joseph; Rebecca, wife of John Rau; Catharine; Magdalena; and Elisabeth. A release deed was executed 23 March 1813, by Joseph Fenstermacher; John Rau and his wife Rebecca; George Buehl (in right of his wife Catharine, deceased); Jacob Leibesberger (Leibensperger) and his wife Magdalena; Adam Keller and his wife Elisabeth; heirs at law of Joseph Fenstermacher, in favor of John Fenstermacher, for 100 acres of land.

In the Longswamp Reformed Church record is found the Baptism of Johann Jacob, son of Jacob Feuchtenacher and w. [illegible], bap. 3 May 1777. This child evidently died young as another [illegible], born 28 Aug. 1778 was also baptized Jacob.

Jacob Fenstermacher and w. Margretha were sponsors in 1773 for Peter, son of Joseph (no. 7) Fenstermacher and w. Margretha (Longswamp Reformed record); and again in 1789 for Jacob, son of the same parents.

His name does not appear in the Fifth and Sixth Series of the Penna. Archives as a soldier of the Revolutionary War. According to the first Federal Census of 1790, Jacob Fenstamaker was then the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16, and two females, in Whitehall Tp.*, Northampton (now Lehigh) County, Pa.

The baptism of the son Johannes was recorded in the Jordan Reformed Church in Whitehall Tp. (1791); that of the dau. 9. John Fenstermacher (Jacob-Mathias), b in Berks County, Pa. (date not known), d in Lehigh Tp*., Northampton Co., Pa. in 1815, and probably bd. at Zion's Stone Church, Kreidersville.

He was a resident of Lehigh Tp. as early as 1774, as on 3 Nov. in that year Michael Glass, conveyed to him land in that township, which he deeded to William Beer, 15 June, 1800.

In a list of taxables in Northampton County, giving the assessed value of property, in 1780, is the name of John Fenstermacher, farmer in Lehigh tp., £500. (History of Northampton Co., Penna., by Peter Fritts, Philadelphia and Reading, 1877).

In 1788 he was assessed in the same township as a carpenter, and paid a Federal tax of 1bs 80, as the owner of 100 acres of land, two horses and two head of cattle. In 1798 he paid 13s 3d (Penna. Archives, 2nd Series).

He was a private of the Seventh Class in Capt. John Dieter's Seventh Company in the Third Battalion of Northampton County Militia in 1780 (Ibid, Fifth Series Vol. 8, p. 347); a fifer in 1782 (Ibid, p. 370); and in 1783 (Ibid, p. 403). His name also appears in a muster roll of the

*Hans Martin Wuchter, b 16 March 1724, d 4 Sept. 1788, and bd. at the Heidelberg Church. He settled in Heidelberg, and 1 Aug. 1772 a land warrant, originally granted 25 Oct. 1749 to Daniel Burger, was transferred to him. Martin, William, and Nathan Wuchter became the successive owners of the tract, which was located near Pleasant Corner. So far as is now known, Hans Martin Wuchter had three children: Martin, a Revolutionary soldier, b 10 Aug. 1763, d 19 Feb. 1840, m. Magdalena Ebert, b 6 Jan. 1764, d 20 May, 1831, and had ten children; (2) John, and (3) Anna Maria, the wife of John Fenstermacher. (Anniversary History of Lehigh County, Penna., by Charles R. Roberts,)

John Fenstermacher and his family were members of the Zion's Reformed Church, Kreidersville, Pa., in the records of which are found the baptisms of five of their children between the years 1781 and 1802, viz: Johannes, John George, Elisabeth, Jonathan, and Catharine. The baptisms of the remaining children have not been found.

In a petition filed in the Orphans Court of Northampton County, at Easton, Pa., it is stated that John Fenstermacher, late of Lehigh Tsp., died intestate in 1815, survived by a widow Anna Maria, and ten children, as listed below, three of whom were then in their minority. The Court appointed as their guardians, John Bachman and Conrad Bachman.

An application was filed in the same Court 29 May 1820, by the following children: George; Jonathan; Conrad Dreisbach and Elisabeth his wife; Solomon; Isaac; John Stetler, assignee of Jacob; and Conrad Bachman, guardian of Anna Maria (? Maria Magdalena). All of the above gave a deed to Joseph, also a son of the decedent. The application stated that a son Joh. Jr. had "accepted his portion 22 Nov. 1816". The guardian of Catharine was not a party to the deed given to Joseph, altho she was then living.

His name appears in the first Federal Census of 1790, as the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, and two females, in Whitehall (now North or South Whitehall) twp., Northampton (now Lehigh) County, Pa. He settled in that locality sometime prior to the first census, and the baptisms of four of his children, i.e. Magdalena, Johannes, Salome, and Elizabeth, are found in the records of the Egypt Reformed Church between the years 1789 and 1795.

The writer was informed by Charles R. Roberts, of Allentown, that Dewalt Fensternacher m 19 Aug. 1788, Catharine Pfeiffer. She also was b between the years 1760 and 1770, preceding her husband in death in the interval between the 1730 and 1740 census.

At an early date he moved with his family to Bedford County, Pa., and later to the State of Ohio. The Federal Census records of that state indicate that they lived in Ellsworth twp., Trumbull (now Mahoning) County, in 1820, 1830, and 1840. In 1820 the family consisted of: Males, 1 (10-16); 1 (16-26); 1 (45 or over); three in agriculture; Females; 1 (10-16); 1 (45 or over). In 1830 the Census shows: Males, 1 (20-30); 1 (60-70); Females, 1 (15-20); 1 (60-70); In 1840: Males, 1 (30-40); 1 (70-80); Females; 1 (under 5); and 1 (20-30).

John R. Fensternacher (No.675), of Dayton, Ohio, a son of Adam (No.229)

in a letter dated 24 Apr. 1917, stated that his grandfather, John (No. 59), had brothers, Charles, Daniel, and Peter. He also gave the names of the wives and those of some of the descendants, all residing in Ohio. He did not, however recall that his grandfather had any sisters.

Gabriel F. Fenstermacher (No.676), of Homerville, Ohio, son of Charles (No.230), also mentioned the above, but likewise could not recall any sisters.

11. Anna Barbara Fenstermacher (Jacob-Mathias), probably b in Berks County, Pa.

Her name occurs first in the records of the Longswamp Reformed Church 8 May 1777, as one of the sponsors for John Jacob, son of Jacob (No.8) and Margretha Fenstermacher.

She m. John George Rauh (Rau).

Rau Family.

The name George Row occurs in the First Federal Census of 1790, as the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16, three males under 16, and two females, in Weisenberg Tsp., Northampton (now Lehigh) County, Pa. George Rough was the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16, one male under 16, and two females, in Upper Milford Tsp., same County. George Row's family consisted of two males over 16, two males under 16, and two females, in Penn Tsp. The first named was most likely the husband of Anna Barbara Fenstermacher. The name Rauh (Rau) seems to have been frequently confused with Rauch, which was probably a different family.

Jacob Row took up 58 acres of land, in Lowhill Tsp., on a warrant dated 21 Oct. 1766. In 1781 Jacob Rowe, Jacob Rowe, Jrl, and George Rowe, were taxables in the same Tsp., and in 1812, George Rau, Sr., George Rau, Jr., and John Rau, (History of Lehigh and Carbon Counties, Penna., by Alfred Mathews and Austin N.

Hungerford - 1884).

George (John George) Rauh (Rau) and w. (? Anna Barbara), were sponsors at Zion's Stone Church, Kreidersville, for John George, son of John and Anna Maria Fenstermacher, in 1787.

George Rauh (Rau) and w. Anna Barbara were sponsors at the Egypt Lutheran Church, for Regina, daughter of Christian and Maria Barbara Fenstermacher, in 1791.

16 April 1816, John Rau, administrator of George Rau, late of Lowhill Tsp., Lehigh Co., Pa., deceased, filed a bond for said administration, and 8 May, in the same year, filed an account. A subsequent account was filed 21 Oct. 1825.

12. Philip Fenstermacher (Philip-Mathias), b 10 Feb. 1746 in Berks County, Pa., d 20 Dec. 1807, and bd at the Lowhill Church, Lowhill Tsp.*, Lehigh County, Pa.

12 May 1767, he secured a warrant for 67 (?50) acres, and later acquired additional land, in the latter township.

In a "History of the Counties of Lehigh and Carbon, Pennsylvania", by Mathews and Hungerford,- 1884, his name is mentioned among those who organized the Ziegel Church.

*Lowhill Tsp., Northampton (now Lehigh County), was erected 18 Dec. 1753. The name was derived from the topography of a large part of that region.

 The congregations of the Ziegel Church were among the oldest in that part of the county, organization having been effected in the year 1745. The first church, built of logs, was dedicated 29 July 1750, as a Union Church. The second church was built in 1796, and the third in 1862. The records of the church, unfortunately, were lost many years ago.

About the time of his marriage (1757) Philip Fenstermacher became a member of the Lowhill Church*, and thereafter took an active interest in the affairs of the Reformed congregation.

In 1785 and 1786 he was assessed as the owner of a grist mill, 170 acres of land, four horses and three head of cattle, and paid a Federal tax of £ 1. 14. 8 and £ 1. 6. 6 for those years. In 1788 he owned 200 acres of land and paid a Federal tax of £ 1. 8. 0. (Penna. Archives, Old Series).

Quoting from an "Anniversary History of Lehigh County, Penna"., by Charles R. Roberts, et al. (Allentown,- 1914, Vol. 1, p. 742), "The Fenstermacher Mill, about a mile farther down the Jordan Creek from Weidasville, was established about the year 1800, (?) by Philip Fenstermacher. It was rebuilt in 1848 and rebuilt again and enlarged in 1873, after which it became the property of James Schlicher (commonly called Schlicher's Mill), who carried it on for a number of years, when David Fenstermacher succeeded him. It was discontinued about 1900, and subsequently the property was purchased by Colonel Harry C. Trexler, who added it to his large deer reservation".

*The congregations of the Lowhill Church had their origin in those of the Weisenberg Church. The Reformed members of the former effected an organization 27 Jan. 1769. The first church, built of logs was dedicated 3 Sept. 1769, by Rev. Philipp Michael. The second church was built in 1798, and the third in 1858. The records of the church contained considerable data relating to the Fenstermacher family.

The date "1800" in the foregoing paragraph, is probably simply a broad statement, as Philip was the owner of a grist mill as early as 1785.

In the first Federal Census of 1790 he was the head of a family consisting of three males over 16, one male under 16, and seven females, in Lowhill Tsp., Northampton (now Lehigh) County.

In the Revolutionary War he espoused the cause of the Colonies, serving as a private in Capt. John Horner's Fourth Company of the Third Battalion of Northampton County Militia, in 1778 (Penna. Archives, Sixth Series, Vol. 8, p. 232); in Capt. Andrew Dapper's Fourth Company of the Sixth Battalion, in 1780 (Ibid, p. 448); and again in 1782 (Ibid, p. 508).

In his will, dated 10 Nov. 1807, he designates himself as a "miller". This interesting document was witnessed by Johannes Bachman and Peter Zimmerman, and the executors named therein were Andrew Knerr and Michael Fenstermacher. It was probated 29 Dec. 1807, at Easton, Pa. Ample provision was made for the subsistence and comfort of his second wife, Elizabeth, so long as she remained his widow. He directed that his plantation, with the grist mill and green grain or winter grain were to be sold "on public vendue" four weeks after his decease, the purchaser to pay £ 550. in specie, and then yearly on the 27th day of May £ 50. until all is paid. The settlement in the estate was filed by the executors 19 Jan. 1809, at Easton, pa., and showed a balance for distribution of £ 497. 16. 9.

Two of his daughters, - Maria Eva (Eva), wife of Peter George, and Susanna Elisabeth (Susanna), wife of Peter Rau, and a son John Philip (Philip), preceded their father in death, and had surviving children who were specifically mentioned in his will.

In a "History of Lehigh and Carbon Counties, Penna"., by Mathews and Hungerford,- 1884, p. 290, it states that "he left two sons,- Jacob and John,- and three daughters,- Mrs. Jonathan (? John) Klotz, Mrs. John George, and Mrs. Hantz (? Hontz or Haines). Klotz and Hantz settled beyond the Blue Mountains, and George in Heidelberg. Jacob settled on the homestead, and also owned the mill which was built by his father Philip".

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN, the 10th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, I, Philip Fenstermacher, of Lowhill Township, in the County of Northampton and State of Pennsylvania, Miller, being very sick and weak in body, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God therefor, calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a christianlike and decent manner at the discreation of my executors, nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. 13. Johann Michael (Michael) Fenstermacher (Philip-Mathias), b 2 July 1749 in Berks County, Pa., d 1 Dec. 1831, and bd. at the Ebenezer Church*, in Lynn Tp., Lehigh Co., Pa.

His name first occurs in the Berks County tax lists for the years 1771 and 1772, when he was assessed as a "single" man in Longswamp Tp. Shortly thereafter he settled in Lynn Tp., Northampton (now Lehigh) County, and his name appears as a taxable in that township in an assessment roll made 27 Dec. 1781, by the commissioners of Northampton County.

In 1785 he paid a Federal tax of £ 1. 4. 0., and was the owner of 117 acres of land, two horses, and one head of cattle, in Lynn Tp. (Penna. Archives, Old Series). The following year (1786) he paid £ 1. 2. 6., and was the owner of 118 acres of land, two horses, and two head of cattle (Ibid.) For the year 1788 he paid £ 1. 0. 0., and owned 100 acres of land, two horses, and two head of cattle (Ibid).

* The foundation of the congregation of the Ebenezer Church in Lynn Tp., dates back to the year 1740, but it was not until about 1745 that the residents of the neighborhood agreed to build a church. Nothing definite was done until 1760, when ground was purchased and actual construction begun. The work was completed in 1761, and the records were begun with the year 1764. These were destroyed by fire some years ago, altho the writer was fortunate enough to examine them before this disastrous loss occurred.

The following sketch appears in a "History of the Counties of Lehigh and Carbon" (Mathews and Hungerford, 1884, p. 300):

"Michael Fenstermacher resided near Lynnville. He was a resident there many years previous to 1781, and built an oil-mill on the creek, which was later changed to a grist-mill. He also started a store in his dwelling-house. It is related of him that for many years his doors were without locks, bolts, or bars. He was urged to fasten his doors, and finally consented. The next week after he had bolted and barred his store it was broken into and some of his goods taken. He was living in 1812, and his sons, Jacob and Philip, were also owners of land at that time. His other sons were Abraham, Daniel, and Peter. Daniel, a grandson of Michael, now resides on the old homestead".

His name appears in the first Federal Census of 1790, as the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, five males under 16, and four females, in Lynn Tp.

The second church was built in the year 1798, and on 16 May 1824 the cornerstone of the third church was laid.

Michael Fenstermacher actively supported the Colonies in the Revolutionary War. In 1780 and 1782 he was a sergeant in Capt. Adam Stahler's First Company of the Sixth Battalion of Northampton County Militia, commanded by Lt. Col. Henry Geiger (Penna. Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. 8, pp. 443 and 502). In 1783 he was an ensign in Capt. Samuel Everett's First Company of the First Battalion, commanded by Lt. Col. Michael Bobst (Ibid pp. 78 and 621). 2 May 1785, he was elected ensign of the First Battalion (Ibid, Sixth Series, Vol. 3, p. 749), and in the spring of 1786 he held the same office in the Sixth Battalion (Ibid, p. 863). His name appears in a list of "Rangers on the Frontiers 1778-1783" (Ibid, Third Series, Vol. 23).

Distribution of his estate, as filed at Allentown, Pa., 6 Feb. 1835, was made to his nine surviving children, and to the ten surviving children of his deceased daughter, Barbara Kerschner, who died in 1827.

Michael Fenstermacher m. 10 Oct. 1773, Philippina Kerschner, b 20 Sept. 1753, d 22 March 1837, and bd. at the Ebenezer Church. She was a daughter of Conrad Kerschner (?Sr.)

None of the baptismal records of their children have been found, and most of the dates here given were taken from the records of the Rev. Mr. Helfrich.

A discrepancy is evident in the birth dates of two of the sons, Philip and Conrad. The date 9 Feb. 1777, given as the birth of Philip, was obtained from the records of the Rev. Mr. Helffrich, while the date 10 March 1777, for Conrad, was furnished by Martin L. Fenstermacher (No.772), of Vicksburg, Mich., a son of Peter (No.265), who, in a letter dated 2 June 1914, stated that his information was secured from his older brother, C. A. Fenstermacher (No.770), and was copied from the family Bible in the latter's possession.

14. Jacob Fenstermacher (Philip-Mathias), b 19 Nov. 1751 in Berks County, Pa., d 19 July 1835, and bd. at DeLong's Church, Bowers, Pa.

When quite a young man he settled in Rockland Tp., Berks Co., Pa.

In the Register of Property in that township for the year 1779, he was assessed as the owner of 100 acres of land, a saw and rolling mill, two horses, and two head of cattle, paying a Federal tax of £2. 2. 2. (Pa. Archives, Old Series). In the assessment returns for 1780 and 1781, the mill was designated as "saw and hemp mill", and the Federal tax paid was £10. 5. 0. and £1. 7. 4. for those years respectively. In the return for the year 1784, there was a notation "No. of persons, four" (Ibid).

His name appears in the first Federal Census of 1790, as the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, four males under 16, and two females, in the same township.

No record of service in the Revolutionary War has been found.

Letters of administration in the estate of Jacob Fenstermacher were granted to his son David, and on 7 Jan. 1837, the auditors report was filed in the Court House at Reading, Pa., showing the balance for distribution as $806.77, which was distributed as follows: To the seven surviving children of his deceased son Daniel, each $15.33; to Jacob, George, and Henry, each $107.38; to Philip, Mary (the w. of Jacob Rohrbach), Abraham, David, and Judith (the w. of Jac. Ox-? Jacob Ochs), each £75.43. No mention is made of the daughters Magdalena and Maria Charlotta.

He m. first Elisabeth Basters, of Longswamp Tp., a daughter of Philip and Barbara. Philip Basters, in his will dated 19 Dec. 1796, probated at Reading, Pa., 2 Aug. 1800, mentions his son-in-law Jacob Fenstermacher, husband of his deceased daughter Elisabeth. In the records of the Longswamp Reformed Church we find the baptism of Johannes son of Philip Basters, b 21 May 1769; sponsors were George Christman and w. The actual date of Elisabeth Basters Fenstermacher's death is not known, but she is probably bd. at DeLong's Church, Bowers, Pa.

Jacob Fenstermacher m. secondly 30 June 1796, Maria Troutman, of Weissenberg Tp., Lehigh Co., Pa., b 22 Oct. 1767, d 21 Aug. 1850, and bd. at DeLong's Church, Bowers.

The baptism of his son Daniel was found in the records of the Longswamp Reformed Church; those of Magdalena, Maria Charlotta, Henry, Abraham, Judith, David, and Reuben, in the records of DeLong's Church, Bowers. No record has been found of the baptisms of Jacob, George, Philip, or Mary.

In the death notice which appeared in "Der Friedens-Bothe" (Allentown, Pa., (Issue of Thursday, 13 Aug.

1835), it states that "Jacob Fenstermacher died on July 19th in Longswamp Tp., Berks Co., aged 83 years and 8 months"; also that "he left 11 children, 74 grand-children, and 25 great-grand-children."

He was assessed as a "Single Freeman" , in Longswamp Tp., Berks Co., in 1779, 1780,and 1781. In the assessment return for the year 1784, he appeared as the owner of 103 acres of land, two horses, two head of cattle, and two sheep. The record contained a notation "two persons", probably meaning himself and wife (Penna. Archives, Old Series).

In the first Federal Census of 1790, his name appeared as the head of a family, consisting of one male over 16, three males under 16, and two females, in Longswamp Tp.

Nothing has been found to show that he took an active part in the Revolutionary War.

Daniel Fenstermacher m. Catharine Elisabeth Eilert, b 20 Sept. 1756, d 1 April 1813, and bd in the same cemetery as her husband. Both of their deaths are noted in the records of St. John's Church, in Wayne Tp. , Schuylkill Co., Pa., and in her case it is stated that she was born in Manheim Tp., Schuylkill Co. (?). She was a daughter of Martin Eilert, who died in Lowhill Tp., Lehigh Co. prior to the year 1790, the date of his will, and his wife Catharine. Her sister, Anna Christina, was the wife of Christian Fenstermacher (No. 16); another sister, Eva Elisabeth, was the wife of Peter Fenstermacher (No.18); a brother, Christopher Eilert, was the husband of Magdalena Fenstermacher (No.20).

No record of the baptisms of any of their children have been found.

Christian Fenstermacher and his w Christina, 10 Apr. 1819, gave a deed to their son-in-law, John Haas.

The baptism of their daughter Gattrina (Catharine) was found in the records of the Longswamp Reformed Church. The census of 1790 would seem to indicate that there were other children, but their names are not known.

Their later years were passed in Weissenberg Tp., Lehigh Co.

No baptismal records of any of their childfen have been found. However, the record of the Rev.Mr.Helffrich states that they had seven sons and six daughters.

3 Sept. 1830, three of the children, Daniel, Anna, and David, then minors over 14 years of age, petitioned the Court at Allentown, Pa., for the appointment of guardian, Daniel and Anna choosing John Gehringer, and David choosing Abraham Fenstermacher.

In 1883, in the settlement of the estate of David Fenstermacher, who died 20 Jan.1882, the administrator, Samuel Fritz, made distribution of the balance in his hands, $281.64-1/4 to each of the following brothers and sisters: Anna, John, the heirs of Benjamin, Catharine, Lydia, Samuel and Mary, the five last named being deceased. Daniel and Elisabeth were not named in the report, the former having died in 1879 without lineal heirs, and the latter, doubtless also deceased without issue.

18. Peter Fenstermacher, (Philip-Mathias), b in Berks Co., Pa., d prior to 25 Oct. 1841 (date of probate of will); place of burial not known, but this was probably at Siegel's Church, in Maxatawny Tp.

His name occurs first in the Berks County tax list for 1779, when he was assessed as a "Single Freeman" in Longswamp Tp., and paid a Federal tax of 15s. He was assessed similarly in 1784, and paid a Federal tax of £2. 0. 0.(Penna. Archives - Old Series). Shortly thereafter he settled in Maxatawny Tp., Berks Co., where, in 1790, he was the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, one male under 16, and one female.(First Federal Census).

Still later he moved to Weissenberg Tp., Lehigh Co., where he spent the latter years of his life.

25 Apr. 1788, Christian Kercher deeded to him three acres of land, which he and his wife Elisabeth (Eva Elisabeth) in turn deed to Peter Christman. At this time Peter Fenstermacher was a resident of Maxatawny Tp., Berks Co.

His will was dated 23 June 1838, and was probated at Allentown, 25 Oct. 1841. His executor was Benjamin Grim, who filed his account at Allentown, Feb. 1843.

Peter Fenstermacher md. in 1785, Eva Elisabeth Eilert, b 18 Feb. 1767, d 7 June 1850, and probably bd in the same cemetery as her husband. She was a daughter of Martin Eilert and his w Catharine, of Lowhill Tp., Lehigh Co. (See Nos. 15, 16, and 20). The Rev. Mr.Helffrich records that she had five sons and six daughters, of whom there survived her, two sons and three daughters. She also had a will, which was dated 1 Oct. 1849 and probated at Allentown 21 June 1850. In her will she named James Lackey as executor, he being a son of her deceased daughter, Maria.

No. record of service by Peter Fenstermacher, in the Revolutionary War has been found.

The baptism of the daughter Margaret was found in the Bowers (Berks Co.) Church record. Those of at least some of the other children were probably entered in the Ziegel's Church records, which, unfortunately are reported to have been destroyed many years ago by fire.

19. John Fenstermacher (Philip-Mathias), b in Berks County, Pa.; date of birth and death not known.

It has been exceedingly difficult to trace the family of John, son of Philip, and nothing absolutely definite is known, other than his being mentioned in his father's will dated 1 July 1789.

A John Fenstermacher's name is found in the Federal Assessment Return of 1784 in Longswamp Tp. He was the owner of 52 acres of land, two horses, two head of cattle, and two sheep. He was also assessed in 1785, and paid a Federal tax of 53. 0. 0. (Penna. Archives, Old Series).

John Fenstermacher (probably the same as the above), according to the First Federal Census of 1790 was the head of a family consisting of one male over 16, no males under 16, and one female, in Longswamp Tp.

John Fenstermacher and Elisabeth Helffer, both single, were sponsors in 1783, for Magdalena, daughter of Christopher Gilert and w. Magdalena, m.n. Fenstermacher (No.)

The name appears in a list of soldiers in Capt. Charles Krause's Company of the First Battalion of Berks County Militia, detailed 13 Aug. 1781, to guard convention prisoners of war, near Reading, 16 Aug. to 16 Oct. 1781. (Penna. Archives, 5th Series, Vol. 5, p.170). For this service he was paid, 11 May 1790, as per Certificate No. 16,832, 4ll. 0. 6 (Ibid, p. 171). He was included in a list of soldiers who received Depreciation pay from the Government (Ibid, Vol. 4, p 258).

According to the records of the Rev. Mr. Helffrich, three children of John Fenstermacher and w Anna Barbara, were baptized 25 March 1821 at Longswamp, i.e., Marmeduke, b 20 July 1812; sponsors, Peter Haas and w Elisabeth; Judith, b 9 Dec. 1815; sponsors, Johann Fenstermacher and w Esther; and Esther, b 2 Aug. 1817; sponsors, same as for Judith.

Mrs. Charles Yingst, of Mt. Holly Springs, Cumberland Co., Pa., stated she had the family Bible containing the record of Esther Fenstermacher, b 20 May 1826, a daughter of "John and Barbery Fenstermacher, nee Bush". She also stated that Esther Fenstermacher (w. of William Albright), had a brother Willoughby, and a sister Anna (w. of -----Beck), who lived in Reading, Pa.

If John (No.109), b 27 Dec. 1791, was the son of John (No.19) and Anna Barbara, it would seem rather strange that he was married and acted as sponsor for another child of his parents (Judith (e) b in 1815), as stated in the Helffrich record.

John Fenstermacher and Anna Barbara, his wife, were sponsors 10 Oct. 1819, for Charles (No.374), son of John (No.109) and his wife Esther. This information is contained in a family Bible and is confirmed in the records of the Rev. Mr. Helffrich.

Also, the Helffrich record names a daughter Esther, b 2 Aug. 1817, while the Yingst Bible also mentions Esther, b 20 May 1826.

Another interesting fact is that both John Fenstermacher, Jr. (No.109), and Esther Fenstermacher (w. of William Albright), had sons whom they named Willoughby and Charles. The latter is, of course, quite a common name, but "Willoughby" is rather unusual.

The facts of this case are rather confusing, but time may afford a correct solution.

It is assumed that Peter and Daniel, who were both residents of Maxatawny tsp., Berks County, were sons of John Fenstermacher (No.19), but proof of this is also lacking.

Until something more definite is shown to the contrary, the following are designated as the issue of John and Anna Barbara Fenstermacher:

Issue:

109 a John, b 27 Dec. 1791
110 b Peter,
111 c Daniel,
d Marmeduke, b 20 July 1812,

f Esther, b 2 Aug. 1817,

20. Magdalena Fenstermacher (Philip-Mathias), b in Berks County, Pa., probably d in Buffalo Valley.

She md. Christopher Eilert, a son of Martin and Catharine Eilert, of Lowhill Tp., Lehigh Co. (See also Nos. 15, 16, 18). He was probably the Christopher Eilert who d in Buffalo Valley 7 Aug. 1824, aged 64 years.

The baptism of only one child, a daughter Magdalena, recorded at the Lowhill Church, has been found, but there may have been other children.

Issue:

He also kept a hotel and in connection with it operated a distillery.

m first 2 Jan. 1798, by Rev. J. H. Helffrich, to Magdalena Bloss.

According to Charles K. Roberts, he m secondly in 1828, a widow, Elizabeth Kunkel.

13 June 1831, articles of Separation were drawn up between William Fenstermacher, of Heidelberg tp., and Elisabeth, his wife, the same being recorded in Allentown, Pa.

The first wife was still living 1 Aug. 1825, on which date William, and Magdalena, his wife, of Heidelberg tp., gave a deed to Samuel Wolf for land in that tp. She probably died between the two latter dates (1825-1831).

The baptisms of all of the children with the exception of Charles, occur in the Reformed records of the Heidelberg Church.

K. Susanna Mattes, daughter of John and Maria (Eck), d 31 Dec. 1872, aged 93 years. The private record of the Rev. Mr. Helffrich contains the information that she was the wife of George Fenstermacher, to whom she was m. 73 years, and that she had nine children. It is very doubtful whether the figure 73 is correct, nor is it probable that she was married for that number of years before her death as this would have made her husband only about 15 years of age when he was married. She is bd. at the Longswamp Church, in Berks County, and on her tombstone her maiden name is given as Susanna Eck. According to Rev. Mr. Helfrrich's record she belonged to the Catholic faith.

111 Daniel Fensternacher (John-Philip-Mathias); assumed to have been a son of John (No.19) and Anna Barbara.

At the age of about thirty he disappeared from his home, and several months afterward his father died. A number of stories are current relative to his leaving home, one being that he went to another part of the country in quest of an inheritance;

another that he was waylaid by some foreign railroad laborers and his body thrown into an abandoned mine. Still another story is that he was employed as a revenue tax collector, and was waylaid and killed while on a trip through Columbia County. Jacob Fenstermacher, of Bowers, Pa., recalled a story told by his father, to the effect that he absconded with some tax money which he had collected, and while he was visiting his parents was pursued by officers. He fled and never returned.

Beckel, in Bethlehem, Pa.; bd. in Fountain Hill Cemetery. He was confirmed in the Dryland Reformed Church, at Hecktown Pa., in 1842. The first years of his married life were spent at Smoketown, in Lower Nazareth Tp., In 1868 he moved to South Bethlehem, and purchased a property on Wyandotte Street (then known as the Philadelphia Road), where he erected a modest brick dwelling. He was one of the founders of the First Reformed Church, in South Bethlehem, and served as superintendent of the German Sunday School for fifteen years. He was always an ardent Bible student, and devoted a portion of each day to the reading of the Scriptures. By occupation he was a fence builder, and he erected a large number of these for the first families on Fountain Hill. At great personal risk he assisted in the care of the sick during the terrible smallpox epidemic of 1882, which resulted in the death of 120 persons in South Bethlehem alone.

About the year 1884 he was appointed farm superintendent by the Bethlehem Iron Company, and moved to the farm in Lower Saucon Tp., on the site of which are now erected a Laboratory Building and the Army and Navy Building of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Owing to his wife's infirmities, he was joined here by his daughter, Anna E.C., and her husband, C. Edward Beckel. The following year (1885), a grandson, Frederick T. Beckel, first saw the light of day in the farm dwelling. In 1887 he relinquished his position on the farm and returned to South Bethlehem, where he reoccupied his old home on Wyandotte Street. Here his wife's sufferings ended in 1891, when he disposed of the property to his son-in-law, Francis E. Fenner, and then made his home with his son, John, on East Third Street. In the fall of 1899, he went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Beckel, at No. 12 East Market Street, where Clarence E. Beckel had purchased the Getz property. Here he passed the remainder of his days, endeared to all with whom he came in contact on his daily walks about the neighborhood, his quiet dignified bearing heightened by a snow white beard and hair.

4 July 1847, at Easton, Pa., he m. Elisabeth Rohn, dau. of David Rohn and w. Anna Maria C. (Hess), of Upper Nazareth Tp., b 25 Aug. 1824, d 22 Feb. 1891, in South Bethlehem; bd. in same cemetery as her husband. She was afflicted for many years with rheumatism, which effected her lower limbs so that she was unable to walk. 516. Ann Eliza Cecilia Fenstermacher (Jacob-John-Jacob-Jacob-Mathias), b 1 Nov. 1856, near Schoenersville, Pa., d 29 April 1930, in Bethlehem; bd. in Nisky Hill Cemetery.

In 1858 she moved with her parents to Bethlehem, where she was educated in the public schools. She was confirmed in the First Reformed Church, Bethlehem (South Side), but in later life joined the Moravian Church, of which her husband and her children were members. Aside from her church affiliation, she was not disposed toward any other organizations, all of her interest being centered in her home and the upbringing of her children. Her unexpected death followed an operation at St. Luke's Hospital, for appendicitis.

27 May 1876, while employed in the family of the Rev. George Meade, an Episcopal clergyman, she married Charles Edward Beckel, b 28 Jan. 1849, in Bethlehem, d 29 Oct. 1923; bd. in the same cemetery as his wife. He was a son of Louis F. Beckel (b 21 May 1826, d 5 July 1881), and his wife Caroline Rebecca Eberman, (b 1 Feb. 1828, d 3 June 1878); both of his parents being descendants of old and influential Moravian families. George Frederick Beckel, the ancestor of the Bethlehem branch of the family, emigrated from Duerkheim, in Rhenish Bavaria, in 1736, and settled in Pennsylvania, first in Heidelberg tp., Berks Co., from whence, in 1747 he moved with his family to Bethlehem. Originally his family had been of the Reformed faith, but having been converted by the preaching of Count Zinzendorf in Berks County, he affiliatd with the Moravians, and after coming to Bethlehem became supervisor (farmer-general) of the lands of the Bethlehem congregation. It was while serving in this capacity that George Frederick Beckel rendered an important service to his country, in September 1777, in sheltering and nursing the young Marquis de Lafayette, illustrious French General of Washington's army in the Revolution, who was wounded at the battle of the Brandywine. The latter's sojourn in the Beckel home continued until 18 Oct. 1777, when he left Bethlehem fully recovered from the injury to rejoin his command.

To Charles Edward Beckel, known familiarly to his friends and associates as Edward or "Eddie", was educated in the Moravian Parochial Day School, later changed to Moravian Preparatory School, and confirmed in the Moravian Church. In early manhood he became a member of the Masonic fraternity and of the I.O.R.M., but did not continue his membership in either of these organizations. He was employed at various times as bookkeeper by ----- Weaver, candy manufacturer, in Allentown, in the Beckel Foundry located on Sand Island, in Bethlehem, which was owned and operated for many years by his grandfather, Charles F. Beckel; and in the general store which his father, Louis F. Beckel, conducted on East Third St. (South Side). The severe financial and industrial depression which existed from 1873, in which both his grandfather and his father suffered reverses from which neither of them recovered, made a deep impression on his life.

Soon after his marriage his health became impaired to such an extent that he was unable to do any confining work, altho, for short periods he was employed in the general store of the South Bethlehem Supply Co. Ltd., and by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

In 1899 the family moved into the home at No. 12 East Market Street, which was later purchased by his son, Clarence E., where the parents both lived for the rest of their days.

FENSTERMACHER FAMILY

APPENDIX

JACOB FENSTERMACHER p 819

BENNEVILLE FENSTERMACHER p 824

APPENDIX.

It is proposed to include in this work some account of families whose connection, if any, with the descendants of Mathias Fenstermacher, has not been definitely established. First among these is that of

JACOB FENSTERMACHER

He was born 17 Apr. 1822, near Lehighton, Pa., d 8 June 1893, near Schoenersville, Pa; bd. at Schoenersville.

His family could not give the names of his parents, and only scant information about his early life. It is significant that he was not baptized until 10 Nov. 1838, by the pastor of the Dryland Reformed congregation, and was confirmed the same year. His son informed the writer that at the age of nine he was taken into the family of a farmer in Bethlehem tp., Northampton Co., by whom he was later employed. For 45 years he conducted a farm near Schoenersville, in Hanover tp., Lehigh Co.

He should not be confused with Jacob Fenstermacher (No.148), who lived in the same vicinity, and who was also a member of the Dryland Reformed congregation.

He m 8 Nov. 1846, Lydia Unangst, dau. of George, b 1 May 1821, d 29 April 1897; bd in same cemetery as her husband.

INTRODUCTION to using the Beckel Manuscript and the
SURNAME INDEX OF FENSTERMACHER FAMILY FEMALES
1535 through about 1936

(217 Pages & 10400 Entries)

From Beckel's Manuscript and other sources.

Disclaimer: This index was developed over several months. The methodology improved and the scope expanded as time progressed. There are probably some errors in spelling of names, page numbers, IDs, etc. There are undoubtedly some omissions and some duplication. Therefore, if you are searching for a specific individual, and a name or date isn't exactly what you are looking for, find an entry that looks somewhat close (name spelling, with or w/o middle names, other likely dates, etc) to what you are looking for and go to the indicated page (or near by pages) for a further search.

This is an alphabetical (by Surname and by married names) index of Females who:

- a. married descendants of Hans Conrad and his son Mathias FENSTERMACHER, whether the descendant was a Fenstermacher or of some other surname.
- b. were the Mothers of Females or Males who married descendants of Hans Conrad and Mathias Fenstermacher, where this information is known.
- c. where information is available, are also shown separately by both surname and married name.
- d. were born with the Fenstermacher surname, even though they are also shown in the Beckel Alphabetical Index of the Given names of all persons (male & female) who were born with the Fenstermacher surname.

NOTES:

aka	"also known as" or shown merely as 'or' followed by another known name usage.
b.	Date of Birth
c	appended to the left of a date means 'circa' or estimated year of birth, marriage, etc.
d.	Date of Death
div.	Date of Divorce
DOB	Date of Birth
DOM	Date of Marriage
FYI	"for your information"
ID	Identification Number assigned by Beckel to individuals shown in his manuscript
m.	Date of Marriage or "married to the individual whose name follows"
MIL	Mother-in-Law
nee	the surname that follows "nee" is the maiden name of the individual.
Unk	means the surname or given name (as applicable where used) is unknown.

? means Beckel wasn't sure, or the entry is an estimate based on other vague data.

* appended to an ID No. means the data may not be readily obvious, but can be found in verbiage that is either buried in or at the end of the narrative that accompanies that ID No.

"Benneville" or "Jacob" in the ID column refers to families of these two Fenstermacher individuals who are identified in pages 818 through 827 of Beckel's manuscript. Their relationship to other Fenstermachers was not known to Beckel.

"Hans Conrad" or "Mathias (1)" or "Ruppenthal", etc. in the Page Number column indicates that the data on the individual on that line was not obtained from the Beckel manuscript. This additional data is provided FYI. The data was obtained from a 1967 Forest Elwood Fenstermaker paper titled "The Fenstermaker Family in Ohio", from Margaret Ann (Marg) Billheimer (nee Fenstermacher), or from Lorinne Lynn (Lori) Humphrey (nee Fenstemaker) , or other sources. Note: 3 different last name spellings, and there are others.

Bold Entries are generally higher interest items to users of this index, as they address such things as mothers of military veterans (nearly 100 are currently known, but not all are shown in this index), ancestors not known by Beckel, other potentially special interest events, etc.; or they are of special interest to contributors to this index as they refer to their direct line ancestors, DOBs are shown as the primary reference dates, where they are known. Where DOMs were known but DOBs were not known, the DOM is shown. Where dates are estimated ('c' appended to the left of side of a date), they were generally estimated for children by adding 20 to 30 years (for the first child) to the parents known or estimated DOB, or by adding one year to a DOM of the mother where known. DOBs for mothers of descendants are generally shown as circa 20 years earlier than the daughter's or son's DOB or 40 years earlier than the daughter's or son's DOM where known. You will see a few of these mothers shown two or more times with different estimated DOBs, as a result of the entry being generated for two or more of her children who married Fenstermacher descendants.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My thanks go to Margaret Ann (Marg) Billheimer (nee Fenstermacher), my 7th cousin with whom I became acquainted through Email discussions about the Beckel manuscript. Our common ancestor is Matthias (aka Johann Mathias or Mathias) Fenstermacher (ID 1 in the Beckel manuscript). Without her encouragement, ideas, and extensive knowledge about Fenstermacher Family History (without having seen the Beckel manuscript), this index would not have been developed.

PRELUDE TO USING THE BECKEL MANUSCRIPT AND THIS INDEX

Beginning on page 1 you will note that Beckel assigns an ID number to each individual upon whom he has marriage or other significant details. These numbers run from ID 1 (for Mathias) through ID 1961-1 on page 817. The ID numbers that have a dash numeral appended (e.g. -1 as in ID 249-1) appear to reflect an after-the-fact ID assignment that Beckel made when he discovered information on a person after he had assigned ID numbers to that person's siblings.

At the end of the narrative on an individual, (e.g., at page 3 for ID 1 Mathias) you will see the word "Issue:" followed by an alphabetically sequenced listing of the children of that individual. I have taken literary license to use those "Issue" alpha characters, along with the Beckel ID numbers of the parent, to serve as pseudo IDs for the children. If an Issue also has an individual ID number assigned, you will find additional details at that ID number listing shown chronologically later in the manuscript; e.g., looking at page 3, I can reference Mathias' son Jacob as either pseudo ID 1a or by his individual ID 2. I have also used pseudo ID numbers and/or male Spouse individual ID numbers to ID female spouses, mother-in-laws, etc. in the index. If a sibling doesn't have an individual ID number assigned, Beckel did not have further detail on that individual, so you won't find that individual listed later in the manuscript.

You will notice that the manuscript is sequenced chronologically by these ID numbers with the ID numbered individuals name shown at the top of the pages for the early generations. As you get to the Fourth Generation beginning with ID 21 on page 77, the details generally become less in volume and Beckel quits starting the details at the top of a new page for each new ID. For example on page 817 you will find that three IDs are addressed in total on that page. And in some cases, where Clarence Eberman Beckel had extensive detail on later generation individuals (such as on his parents and on himself beginning at ID 516 on page 329), he may still devote more than a page to an individual, e.g. page 329 through page 533 where I pseudo ID him as ID 516b and where Beckel initially assigned himself ID 1222. His details are then presented where ID 1222 occurs chronologically beginning on page 574. Clarence E. Beckel had no children.

This process begins with Mathias' children on page 3. ID numbers are assigned sequentially to the children of the parent, usually (but not always) in the order of their birth (e.g., ID 2 Jacob, ID 1b William, and ID 3 Philip). And on page 8, the children of ID 2 Jacob are assigned ID's 4 through ID 11, skipping ID 3 which was previously assigned to Jacob's brother Philip on page 3. And on page 17, Philip's children are assigned ID 12 through ID 20. This process continues throughout each generation of the manuscript, picking up with the third generation children of Jacob and Philip beginning with ID 4 on page 18 through ID 20 on page 76. It should be noted however, that ID numbers do not necessarily reflect any age comparison within a generation, as Beckel groups ID numbers for the children of one individual and then jumps to the children of the next IDd individual in that family before moving to the children of the next person from the previous generation. And although Beckel tended to list siblings chronologically by DOB (within each group of siblings), where he knew the DOBs, he wasn't always correct, especially in regards to those at the end of a sibling list, where DOBs were unknown at the time that he typed the page. A check of the details where the ID appears next in the manuscript sometimes show that DOBs were eventually found but did not get posted to the individuals initial entry at the sibling group, and didn't necessarily end up in chronological order with the other siblings in that group.

You will note on page 77 that Beckel did not assign an ID# to 21b John George Fenstermacher, because all the detail that he had on John George is shown at 21b on page 77.

So, again, if you don't see an individual ID assigned to a sibling, you won't find any more details on that person later in the document.

How do you find the details on a particular sibling who is assigned an ID? For example on page 77, if you want to see the details on John George's sister, ID 113 Anna Maria Fenstermacher, you merely need to thumb/scan sequentially towards the back of the manuscript until you see "ID 113" next in the manuscript, at the beginning of the narrative on this individual. You will find ID 113 Anna Maria Fenstermacher" about 1/3rd of the way from the top of page 149. And if you want to see the details on her son ID 388 John Hess, you merely need to continue to thumb/scan sequentially through the manuscript until you see ID 388 John Hess" about half way down from the top of page 274.

Now for possibly the less obvious process of tracking backwards through the manuscript for earlier ancestors:

For example if you have a friend/acquaintance who has a Fenstermacher male or female descendant in there ancestry, and they can give you a name and date of birth or name and spouse of a person in that ancestry who was born as early as possible in that ancestry, you can start by trying to find the person by that name in Beckel's indexes as a starting point.

For example, I have a friend who told me that he had a Sarah Fenstermacher in his ancestry who married Philip Wertman. Looking in Beckel's Given Name Index you will find some 59 Fenstermachers with Sarah as a given name (a lot of looking!!!!!). But if you look in Beckel's Surname Index, you will find only one Philip Wertman (Philip L. Wertman), listed as at page 265. At page 265 you will see that he married a Sarah Emilia Fenstermacher. A cross check in the Given Name Index doesn't show a Sarah at page 265. However, at page 265 you will see that Sara Emilia was assigned ID 371. Now if you reverse the process for searching for descendant ID numbers in Beckel's manuscript, and thumb backwards sequentially toward the front of the manuscript until you find ID 371 as the "Issue:" or child of some one, you will find ID 371 Sarah Emilia" on page 144 as the daughter of ID 108 Abraham Fenstermacher.

NOTE: If you look in the Given Name Index again you won't find a Sarah at page 265, but a Sarah Emilia does appear at page 144 (as found above), the first place that she appears in the Beckel manuscript.

LESSON LEARNED: Even though when trying to compare a person and page number listed in the Beckel Surname Index, to a person and page number in his Fenstermacher Given Name Index to try to make a match, don't give up if you do not initially find a match, as Beckel frequently only shows a page number for an individual at the first page where that individual appears in his manuscript, i.e., as the child of that individual's parents.

Those Beckel manuscript shortcomings are addressed in this Index of Female descendants. Now you don't necessarily need to look in Beckel's two indexes when you know the Given Name and Married Name (and maybe a DOB or estimated DOB) of an ancestor. For example with the same initial information as I was given in the example above, I can now quickly go to the Wertmans in this Female Index where I find only one Sarah Wertman: Wertman, Sarah Emilia (nee Fenstermacher), born in 1841 who can be found first at page 144, and again at page 265 where her marriage to Philip L. Wertman is documented.

Continuing on to find Sarah's ancestry, thumbing/scanning backwards from page 144, looking in the 'Issues' area at the end of narratives on earlier generations for Sarah's Father (ID 108 Abraham) you will find at page 72 that he was the son of (ID 18 Peter) on page 71, and thumbing/scanning backwards further for (ID 18 Peter) you will find at page 17 that he was the son of (ID 3 Philip) on page 9, and again thumbing/scanning back still further you will find at page 3 that (ID 3 Philip) was the son of (ID 1 Matthias) on page 1. That's all there is to it. But it is important, when doing this kind of initial search in the manuscript, to have as much information as you can get regarding your friend/acquaintance's early ancestor, including DOB or marriage for an occasion that happened prior to 1900 if possible, as the Beckel manuscript only covers some (but not all) ancestors who were known through 1936.

AND FINALLY, A SIDE ISSUE: Comparing my known lineage with my friend's lineage I see that our common ancestor was (ID1 Mathias). My friends 2nd generation ancestor was (ID 3 Philip) and mine was (ID 2 Jacob) who were Brothers. My friends 3rd generation ancestor was (ID 18 Peter) son of Philip and mine was (ID 7 Joseph) son of Jacob, so Peter and Joseph were first cousins. My friends 4th generation ancestor was (ID 108 Abraham) son of Peter and mine was (ID 41 Johannes) son of Joseph, so Abraham and Johannes were second cousins. My friends 5th generation ancestor was (ID 371 Sarah) daughter of Abraham and mine was (ID 160 Reuben) son of Johannes, so Sarah and Reuben were third cousins. And again tracing towards the back in Beckel, he shows on page 265a that ID 371 Sarah Fenstermacher and Philip Wertman had a 6th generation daughter (ID 978 Rosie Wertman) who was my (ID 160 Reuben's) son (ID 478 Joseph Harrison Fenstermacher's) fourth cousin. And at (ID 978 Rosie Wertman) at page 491, Beckel shows that Rosie Wertman and Charles Sthare had a 7th generation son (ID 1744 Arthur Sthare) who was my friends Grandfather, who would be Joseph Harrison's son's (ID 478a Jonathan Daniel's {my Grandfather's}) fifth cousin. And at (ID 1744 Arthur R. Sthare), thumbing through to page 725, Beckel shows that he married Ruth Evert. Although Beckel didn't have info at page 725 on an 8th generation fourth child (Loretta Sthare) of Arthur Sthare, Loretta Sthare married James G. Storm. Loretta Storm (nee Sthare) was my friends mother, and as the daughter of Arthur Sthare, Loretta Storm (nee Sthare) and my father Paul V. Fenstermacher are sixth cousin, so my friend Donald Storm and I (Gene Fenstermacher) are 9th generation descendants of Mathias Fenstermacher and we are seventh cousins. Don is also a seventh cousin to my brothers and to my 1st cousins, a seventh cousin once removed to my son, the children of my brothers, and the children of my 1st cousins, and a seventh cousin twice removed to my Grandchildren and the Grandchildren of my brothers and 1st cousins, etc.

That completes Beckel 201 on how to use this Female Index with the Beckel manuscript, and how you can determine some basic family relationships.

Ancestry Notes of Interest, and Conclusion:

The earliest record of the name Fenstermacher, that I am aware of, is found in the publication: "Etymologisches Worterbuch der Deutschen Familiennamen*", written by Josef Karlmann Brechenmacher.

It states that: "CORDT FENSTERMACHER was a citizen of Hornburg, Saxony in the year 1492". Cordt was a stained glass window maker. It was during the time that Cordt made stained glass windows for cathedrals, in the entourage of Frederick III, Prince Elector of Saxony who was also known as Frederick the Wise, that he became known as Cordt the window maker. The German word for 'window maker', of course, is Fenstermacher. Cordt Fenstermacher did such an excellent job on his stained glass windows that he became known as far as Rotterdam.

The story of Frederick III is very interesting. He started the University of Wittenberg where Martin Luther and Philipp Melanchthon taught. The university became a center of the Reformation under the influence of Philipp Melanchthon and building on the works of Martin Luther. Frederick III protected Martin Luther from the Emperor and Pope by taking him into custody at Wartburg Castle after the Diet of Worms. Frederick himself had little personal contact with Luther and remained Roman Catholic.

I am currently unaware as to whether there is any linkage between Cordt Fenstermacher in 1492, and Hans Conrad Fenstermacher (below) who was born c1650. However, the similarities in the names 'Cordt' and 'Conrad' lends credence to a possible linkage.

The record of the 6 Nov 1677 marriage of HANS CONRAD FENSTERMACHER and JOHANNETEN BRICTII HAFFNER was recorded in the following church records: "Evangelischen Landeskirchenant Archive, Page 295, Volume 1 of that place", where 'that place' means Thalfang on the Hunsruck (River), Bernkassel (Region), Rheinland (Germany of old). The records of that church were moved for safety during some war, to the Church of Koblenz, and then to the: Archiv, Evangelischen Kirche im Rheinland, Archivstelle, Karmeliterstr. 1-3, Koblenz, Germany, where they reside today.

The 24 Sep 1678 record of the birth of Johann Mathias Fenstermacher, who was the only child of Hans Conrad Fenstermacher who died just before Mathias was born, was recorded in the "Church Book, Thalfang-Brobach, Bavaria" (probably the same church records as above.

Beckel's manuscript picks up with the immigration to America of Mathias's son Phillip in 1737. Mathias (and his wife Anna Catharina Ruppenthal), his son Jacob (and his wife Anna Margaretha Koehler {nee Schweig}) and Mathias' son Wilhelm followed in 1738. The Beckel document didn't document the arrival of these two Fenstermacher spouses, but does document over 5000 descendants of Hans Conrad Fenstermacher in America by 1936. Hopefully this Surname Index of Fenstermacher Family Females and the Beckel Manuscript that now reside in the Bethlehem Area Public Library will enable you to determine whether you are a descendant of some of those 5000+ descendants of Hans Conrad Fenstermacher. Good luck in your search!
